

Reappointment of Alfredo Calot Escobar as Registrar of the Court of Justice

Alfredo Calot Escobar, who has been the Registrar of the Court of Justice since 7 October 2010, was reappointed by the Court of Justice on 27 October 2015 for a term of six years, that is to say, for the period from 7 October 2016 until 6 October 2022.

The Registrar of the Court of Justice, who is also the institution's Secretary-General, is appointed by the Judges and Advocates General of the Court of Justice for a renewable period of six years.

Curriculum vitae

Born in 1961, Mr Calot Escobar obtained a law degree from the University of Valencia (1979-84). A business analyst at the Council of the Chambers of Commerce of the Autonomous Community of Valencia until 1986, he became a lawyer-linguist at the Court of Justice of the European Communities in 1986 and then a lawyer-reviser in 1990, before being appointed as an administrator in the Court's Press and Information Service in 1993. He then joined the European Parliament in 1995 as an administrator in the Secretariat of the Institutional Affairs Committee. He was appointed as aide to the Registrar of the Court of Justice the following year and performed those functions until 1999 when he was seconded to the post of legal secretary at the Court of Justice. Head of the Spanish Translation Division at the Court from 2000 to 2001, he was then appointed Director of Translation, and subsequently Director-General of Translation, at the Court, functions which he performed until 7 October 2010, the date of his election as Registrar of the Court of Justice.
