

Court of Justice of the European Union

PRESS RELEASE No 37/10

Luxembourg, 16 April 2010

Press and Information

All European Final of the European Moot Court Competition takes place at the Court of Justice of the European Union, Luxembourg on 16 April 2010

Law students who have made their way through a tough selection among 80 teams since September 2009 when the competition was launched, will today plead before panels composed of Members of the Court, General Court and Civil Service Tribunal of the European Union. The teams won their respective Regional Finals which were held in January and February 2010 in Maastricht, Madrid, Florence and New York.

Students from all over Europe participated in the competition. Those who made it to the Regional Finals also included students from Africa, Asia, North and South America.

The Final is the last stage of this year's competition in the world's largest Moot Court in European law. The winners will receive various prizes, including internships with European Institutions or highly respected law firms specialised in European law.

Unofficial document for media use, not binding on the Court of Justice

Press Contact: Iliana Paliova ☎ (+352) 4303 3708