

Court of Justice of the European Union

PRESS RELEASE No 78/16

Luxembourg, 18 July 2016

Press and Information

The Court of Justice of the European Union adds its voice to the tributes paid to the victims of the attack of 14 July in Nice

The Members and staff of the Court of Justice of the European Union share the pain and deep emotion resulting from the attack which has struck Nice and stand at France's side in the face of this tragedy.

In memory of the victims and to express their compassion to their families and loved ones, the Members and staff of the institution gathered at midday to observe a minute's silence, while the French and European Union flags have been placed at half-mast.

The President of the Court of Justice of the European Union has also expressed, on behalf of the institution, his most heartfelt sympathy and his solidarity in messages sent to the French authorities.

Unofficial document for media use, not binding on the Court of Justice.
