DEATH OF OLE DUE, FORMER PRESIDENT OF THE COURT OF JUSTICE OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

* * *

The President and Members of the Court of Justice of the European Communities regret to announce the death of Ole Due, former President of the Court of Justice, on 21 January 2005 at Hillerød (Denmark).

The funeral, attended by Vassilios Skouris, President of the Court, Bo Vesterdorf, President of the Court of First Instance, Judge Claus Gulmann and Roger Grass, Registrar of the Court, will take place at Egebæksvang (Espergærde) on Friday 28 January 2005 at 3pm.

Ole Due was born in 1931. After a career with the Ministry of Justice, during which he had notably been involved with the technical adaptation of Community acts at the time of enlargement in 1973 and the drawing up of the Treaty of Accession, he became legal adviser to the Court of Appeal in Copenhagen in 1978. He was also a member of the Danish delegation to the Hague Conference on private international law.

Appointed judge of the Court of Justice on 7 October 1979, he became President on 7 October 1988, a post which he held until 6 October 1994.

Unofficial document for media use, not binding on the Court of Justice.
