

Solemn undertaking before the Court of Justice of the European Union by the new Commissioner

In accordance with the Treaties, and after the resignation of Mr Jonathan Hill, the European Council, by decision of 19 September 2016, has appointed Mr Julian King as a European Commissioner. Mr King will be responsible for the Security Union portfolio until 31 October 2019.

Today, at noon, the Court of Justice of the European Union held a formal sitting during which the new Commissioner gave the solemn undertaking provided for in the Treaties.
