

PRESS RELEASE No 164/23

Luxembourg, 26 October 2023

Visit to the Court of Justice of the European Union by the President of the Republic of Slovenia, Ms Nataša Pirc Musar

During that visit, Ms Pirc Musar handed over to the Court three works of art on loan from the National Gallery of Slovenia

The President of the Republic of Slovenia, Ms Nataša Pirc Musar, today visited the Court of Justice of the European Union on the occasion of the handover of the works of art ¹ 'Poletje (Summer)' and 'Zima (Winter)' by the artist Tugo Šušnik, and the work of art 'Lipizzaner Horse' by the artist Janez Boljka, on loan to the Court by the National Gallery of Slovenia.

Welcomed by Mr Koen Lenaerts, President of the Court of Justice, and Mr Marko Ilešič, Judge at the Court of Justice, and by Ms Maja Brkan and Mr Damjan Kukovec, Judges at the General Court, Ms Pirc Musar was invited to sign the Livre d'Or of the Court of Justice.

She met with President Lenaerts and then participated in a round table with Mr Lenaerts, Mr Ilešič, Ms Brkan and Mr Kukovec.

Finally, Ms Pirc Musar officially handed over the works of art during a ceremony in the presence of Members of the Court of Justice and the General Court, but also officials and other servants of the Court of Slovenian nationality.

Unofficial document for media use, not binding on the Court.

Press contact: Jacques René Zammit ☎ (+352) 4303 3355.

Stay Connected!

¹ Thanks to the cooperation of the Member States, the Court retains a collection of works of art representative of the European multicultural heritage. These works, which are the subject of a gift, deposit or loan, often evoke the ideas of Europe, justice, harmony, cooperation and peace.