

INFORMATION NOTICE ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

COURT OF JUSTICE OF THE EUROPEAN UNION

Everyone has the right to the protection of personal data.

The processing of personal data by the institutions, bodies, offices and agencies of the European Union is governed by Regulation 2018/1725 (OJ 2018 L 295, p. 39).

This notice explains how and why your data are used in the context of the processing operation concerned.

Who is the data controller?

The controller responsible for processing the data is the Library of the Court of Justice.

Why do we need your data?

We need the following data: your full name, your status (institution/university), the period for which you envisage using the Library over the next 12 months and your email address. These data are necessary for your admission to the Library of the Court of Justice with prior authorisation.

The processing of your data is necessary in order to fulfil the Library's mission, in particular to be accessible to external users who satisfy certain conditions.

If you are unwilling to provide your data, you cannot be given access to the Library of the Court of Justice.

Who has access to your data?

Your data are not publicly available. Access to your personal data is available only to the Library of the Court of Justice.

How long are your data stored for?

Your personal data are stored for one year.

What are your rights?

In accordance with the applicable rules, you have the right to request from the controller access to and rectification or erasure of your data or restriction of processing.

You are also entitled to object to the processing of your data on compelling grounds relating to your particular situation.
