

Directorate-General of Administration
Directorate for Human Resources
Talent Selection Unit

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS N° CJ AP 9/25

Judge Mac Eochaidh of the General Court is recruiting for the post of Legal Assistant (grade AST 3).

The successful candidate will primarily undertake legal work assisting the Judge and his legal secretaries in dealing with cases assigned to the Cabinet. There will be a heavy emphasis on legal research and drafting legal texts. Assisting Judge Mac Eochaidh in preparing presentations, speeches, etc is also a feature of the post.

In addition, the successful candidate will be required to carry out administrative tasks under the supervision of the first assistant whose functions will need to be ensured or shared in case of absence or workload.

This position provides an excellent opportunity for a recent law graduate or newly qualified lawyer to begin a career focused on EU Law and Litigation and, having gained experience, to advance within the EU institutions or the private sector.

A good knowledge of French is required. Training in written legal French in the Court's 'house style' will be provided if needed. An excellent knowledge of English is required and familiarity with the Irish legal system and the common law would be advantageous.

Those interested in that post are invited to submit their applications, together with a detailed curriculum vitae, via the EU CV Online portal following the link <https://curia.europa.eu/apply>, before Monday 17th March 2025, at 17.00 (Luxembourg time).

The remuneration of a grade AST 3 post may be consulted in the table which appears on the following reference: EUR-Lex - 52024XC07388 - EN - EUR-Lex