

Case T-77/91 R

Ingfried Hochbaum

v

Commission of the European Communities

(Officials — Interim measures — Suspension of the effects of a judgment of the Court of First Instance — Dismissal)

Order of the President of the Court of First Instance, 22 November 1991 II - 1286

Summary of the Order

Application for interim measures — Suspension of operation — Judgment of the Court of First Instance appealed against — Application to the Court of First Instance — Inadmissible (Protocol on the Statute of the Court of Justice of the EEC, Art. 53; EEC Treaty, Art. 185)

Since an appeal brought before the Court of Justice against a decision of the Court of First Instance has no suspensory effect, as is apparent from Article 53 of the Protocol on the Statute of the Court of Justice of the EEC, it is incumbent on a party wishing to secure suspension of the effects of a judgment of the Court of First Instance against which he has brought an appeal to submit an application to the Court of Justice to that effect pursuant to Article 185 of the Treaty.
