The Court's mission

The Court of Justice of the European Union (CJEU) lies at the heart of European justice. As the judicial authority of the Union, it works in close collaboration with national jurisdictions of the Member States to ensure the consistent interpretation and application of the EU Treaties and law. As an employer, the CJEU strives for excellence and values multilingualism, inclusiveness, diversity, and collaboration.

Who will be your team?

The Communications Directorate, within the Directorate-General for Information, is responsible for the internal and external communication of the Court of Justice of the European Union. It informs journalists and the general public about the institution's activities, primarily through its press officers, its website and social media channels. Its cross-functional teams manage these channels and create and distribute the Court's audiovisual content, on its Curia WebTV platform.

What will your contribution be?

We are looking for a social media content creator who, under the authority of the Director of Communication and in collaboration with the social media team - in particular the Community Manager and the Content Manager, will be responsible for the following tasks:

- Producing creative content for social media.
- Managing day-to-day social media posts (posting, performance monitoring, tailoring content).
- Collaborating with the editorial and audiovisual teams to ensure the consistency of the messages disseminated.
- Participating in the coverage of institutional projects or events on digital platforms.
- Performing tasks related to other services and participating on horizontal projects within the Communications Directorate.

Are you who we are looking for?

Basic qualifications:

- Be a national of one of the Member States of the European Union (EU).
- A level of post-secondary education of at least 3 years attested by a diploma.
- A thorough knowledge of one of the EU's official languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another. For working reasons, and given the nature of the tasks, an excellent command of either English or French and a good knowledge of the other is required. Knowledge of other official languages of the European Union will be taken into account.

Desirable qualifications:

- Diploma in the field of communication.
- Professional experience in audiovisual production and post-production.
- Experience in the legal field or in EU or international institutions would be an asset.
- Skills in creative writing and drafting engaging content for a diverse audience and for different communication platforms.
- Experience in audiovisual and/or social media communication in the institutional field.
- Experience in a multilingual and multicultural environment.
