

6th Criminal Chamber, judgment [sentenza] of 6 Oct. 2020 No 28228 , legally summarised as follows: «The fact that the United Kingdom has initiated the process for withdrawing from the European Union does not justify the refusal of a European Arrest Warrant for surrender to that State, given that there is no real risk that the person whose surrender is sought might be deprived of their fundamental rights, also in consideration of the continuing guarantees deriving from Britain's participation in the ECHR. (The Supreme Court of cassation, in the grounds of its judgment, highlighted that, in compliance with the judgment of the EU Court of Justice, dated 19 September 2018, mere notification of the intention to withdraw from the European Union does not suspend the application, in the United Kingdom, of the EAW Framework Decision, which therefore remains in full force until the time of its actual withdrawal on 31 December 2020)» (Rv. 279626-01)
